

§ 1446.409

the peanuts were produced, or such earlier date as may be authorized by the Deputy Administrator, State and County Operations, if the final TKC obligation determined for such handler, when converted to a farmers stock peanuts basis by dividing the TKC pounds by 0.795 for runner peanuts; 0.75 for Spanish peanuts; 0.735 for Virginia peanuts; or 0.77 for Valencia peanuts, is less than the amount that would be applicable for such handler and for such amount of farmers stock peanuts as determined in accordance with § 1446.403 of this part. The letter of credit may be decreased to the amount so determined.

(b) Adjusting the letter of credit for acceptable proof of disposition. The handler shall deliver to the marketing association satisfactory evidence as described in this part, to verify that contract additional peanuts have been exported or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this part. On January 31, of the calendar year following the year in which the peanuts were produced, and monthly thereafter of such following year, the marketing association shall permit a reduction of the letter of credit if the existing letter of credit exceeds 140 percent of the national average quota price support rate for the applicable crop times the farmers stock equivalent of the remaining TKC obligation as determined in the same manner as provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Drawing against the letter of credit.

(1) If less than 16 days remain before the expiration of a handler's letter of credit, and upon authorization by CCC, the marketing association may draw against the letter of credit and apply the amount toward any penalty due for failure to properly dispose of, or account for, contract additional peanuts in accordance with this part if:

(i) By the final disposition date required in this part, a deficiency remained in the handler's obligation to crush or export contract additional peanuts;

(ii) By the date required in this part, the handler did not provide satisfactory documentary evidence of the full export of peanuts or peanut products; or

7 CFR Ch. XIV (1-1-05 Edition)

(iii) The handler has committed another violation of this part with respect to such peanuts.

(2) Any draw down against a letter of credit shall not compromise any penalty due CCC if the letter of credit is insufficient to cover the full amount of the penalty or prevent any re-determination of whether there has been a proper disposition of and/or accounting for peanuts.

§ 1446.409 Access to facilities.

A handler, by entering into contracts to receive contract additional peanuts, or any person or firm otherwise receiving contract additional peanuts, shall be considered to have agreed that any authorized representative of CCC or the marketing association:

(a) May enter and remain upon any of the premises of the handler when such peanuts are being received, shelled, cleaned, bagged, sealed, weighed, graded, stored, milled, blanched, crushed, packaged, shipped, sized, processed into products, or otherwise handled;

(b) May inspect such peanuts and the oil, meal, and other products thereof; and

(c) May inspect the premises, facilities, operations, books, and records of the handler to the extent necessary to determine that such peanuts have been handled in accordance with this part.

§ 1446.410 Disposition date.

(a) Final disposition date. To avoid a penalty as provided in this part, a handler shall dispose of all contract additional peanuts, in accordance with the provisions in this part, by the final disposition date. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the final disposition date shall be October 15 of the year following the calendar year in which the crop was grown.

(b) Extension of final disposition date. The final disposition date for an individual handler may be extended by the marketing association to November 30 of the year following the calendar year in which the crop was grown if, by the final disposition date identified in paragraph (a) of this section, the handler files a written request with the marketing association that specifies
